FUNDAMENTALS OF LAW

Competition and applicable regulations

Yo

In accordance with the provisions of articles 58.2 and 60 of Regulation (EU) 2016/679 of the European Parliament and of the Council of April 27, 2016 on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data and the free circulation of these data (GDPR), and as established in articles 47, 48.1, 64.2 and 68.1 and 68.2 of Organic Law 3/2018, of December 5, Protection of Personal Data and guarantee of digital rights (hereinafter, LOPDGDD) is competent to initiate and resolve this procedure the Director of the Agency Spanish Data Protection.

Likewise, article 63.2 of the LOPDGDD determines that: "Procedures processed by the Spanish Data Protection Agency will be governed by the provisions in Regulation (EU) 2016/679, in this organic law, by the provisions regulations dictated in its development and, insofar as they do not contradict them, with character subsidiary, by the general rules on administrative procedures”.

II

Previous Questions

In the present case, in accordance with the provisions of article 4.1 of the GDPR, there is the processing of personal data, since EUROPYMES carries out the collection of, among others, the following personal data of natural persons:

name, surname and email, among others. In addition, it is a treatment cross-border, since EUROPYMES is established in Spain, although it provides service to other countries of the European Union.

EUROPYMES carries out this activity in its capacity as data controller, given that it is the one who determines the ends and means of such activity, by virtue of article 4.7 of the GDPR.

The GDPR provides, in its article 56.1, for cases of cross-border processing, provided for in its article 4.23), in relation to the competence of the authority of main control, that, without prejudice to the provisions of article 55, the authority of control of the main establishment or of the only establishment of the person in charge or of the

The person in charge of the treatment will be competent to act as control authority for the cross-border processing carried out by said controller or commissioned in accordance with the procedure established in article 60. In the case examined, as has been exposed, EUROPYMES has its only establishment in Spain, so the Spanish Agency for Data Protection is competent to act as the main supervisory authority.

28001 – Madrid

For its part, article 17 of the GDPR regulates the right to obtain without undue delay of the person in charge of the treatment the deletion of the personal data that concern.

Right of erasure

Article 17 "Right of deletion" of the GDPR establishes:

"1. The interested party shall have the right to obtain without undue delay from the person responsible for the treatment the deletion of personal data that concerns you, which will be obliged to delete without undue delay the personal data when any of the following circumstances:

to)

the personal data is no longer necessary in relation to the purposes for which were collected or otherwise processed;

In the present case, the claimant registered with the NOBUNA service, belonging to EUROPYMES, on September 12, 2019. On August 18 of 2020, requested by email to the person responsible for the treatment the deletion of his account, who replied on August 21, 2020 that the account had been removed. However, that same day the complaining party communicates that its account is still open. On August 24, 2020, he once again requested the withdrawal of his account in NOBUNA, who that same day answers that the deletion of the complaining party's account if the complaining party does not access their account in a period of thirty days. On November 13, 2020, the complaining party again receives a notification from NOBUNA regarding his account, so it had not been removed. On November 20, 2020, NOBUNA informs you that your account has been deleted. Subsequently, on February 21, 2021 and March 23 of 2021 the complaining party receives notifications in his email again from the NOBUNA service. On this last date, the claimant returns to communicate that your data has not been deleted, and that you have contacted the authority of data protection, to which the NOBUNA service replies to "ignore" the last notification sent to your email since your data has been deleted.

Therefore, according to the evidence available at this time agreement to initiate disciplinary proceedings, and without prejudice to what results from the instruction, it is considered that the known facts could constitute a infringement, attributable to EUROPYMES, for violation of article 17 of the GDPR.

Classification of the infringement of article 17 of the GDPR

IV.

If confirmed, the aforementioned infringement of article 17 of the GDPR could lead to the commission of the offenses typified in article 83.5 of the GDPR that under the
