A person is employed in the civil service with a probation period of 3 months.

Candidates who do not have a passed state exam of the appropriate level may also apply for the public competition, with the obligation to pass the state exam in accordance with the provisions of Article 99 of the Civil Servants Act. Candidates who have passed the judicial exam are not required to take the state exam.

In the Application Form for the public competition, which can be found on the website of the Agency for the Protection of Personal Data (<https://azop.hr/>), it is necessary to provide personal data of the applicant (full name, date and place of birth, address of residence, phone number, and email address) and the name of the job position for which they are applying.

The application form must be signed by hand.

Application Form

Along with the application, candidates are required to submit:

- a CV
- proof of Croatian citizenship;
- proof of work experience in relevant positions, i.e., positions in the relevant professional qualification and field (electronic record or confirmation from the Croatian Pension Insurance Institute about the data recorded in the main registry from which the employer, duration of insurance, actual and required professional qualification can be seen, or other proof from which the necessary data is visible);
- proof of completed level of education (copy of diploma)
- a copy of the certificate of passing the state exam of the appropriate level, or the judicial exam (for candidates who have passed the state/judicial exam).
- a copy of the driver's license

If a person has changed their surname and is submitting documentation with their old surname, it is necessary to provide proof of the name change.

Documents are submitted in unverified copies, and before the selection of candidates, the original will be presented.

The deadline for submitting applications for the public competition is eight days from the date of publication in the "Official Gazette".

A complete application is considered one that contains all the data and attachments specified in the public competition.

A person who has not submitted a timely and orderly application or does not meet the formal requirements from the public competition is not considered a candidate who has applied for the public competition.

Applications with evidence of meeting the requirements must be submitted within 8 days from the date of publication in the "Official Gazette", either in person or by mail to the address: Agency for the Protection of Personal Data (application for the public competition), Selska cesta 136, 10000 Zagreb. Persons who, according to special regulations, have the right to priority must refer to this right in their application, i.e., attach all prescribed documentation according to the special law.

A candidate who invokes the right to priority in employment in accordance with Article 101 of the Act on Croatian Veterans of the Homeland War and Members of Their Families ("Official Gazette", No. 121/17, 98/19, 84/21, 156/23), and Article 47 of the Act on Civilian Victims of the Homeland War ("Official Gazette", No. 84/21), must, along with their application for the advertisement, in addition to proof of meeting the required conditions, also submit evidence of meeting the priority conditions according to the list available on the website of the Ministry of Croatian Veterans via the following link: <https://branitelji.gov.hr/zaposljavanje-u-drzavnoj-sluzbi/843>.

A candidate who invokes the right to priority in employment in accordance with Article 9 of the Act on Professional Rehabilitation and Employment of Persons with Disabilities ("Official Gazette", No. 157/13, 152/14, 39/18, and 32/20), must, along with their application for the public competition, in addition to proof of meeting the required conditions, also submit proof of established status as a person with a disability.

A candidate who invokes the right to priority in employment in accordance with Article 48.f of the Act on the Protection of Military and Civil War Invalids ("Official Gazette", No. 33/92, 57/92, 77/92, 27/93, 58/93, 2/94, 76/94, 108/95, 108/96, 82/01, 94/01, 103/03, 148/13 i 98/19), when applying for the advertisement, in addition to evidence of meeting the required conditions, must also submit a decision or confirmation from which the mentioned right is evident.

A candidate who is a member of a national minority has the right to invoke preference in employment based on Article 22 of the Constitutional Act on the Rights of National Minorities ("Narodne novine", No. 155/02, 47/10, 80/10, and 93/11 – Decision of the Constitutional Court of the Republic of Croatia), and is not required to prove their status as a member of a national minority.

The Commission for the Implementation of the Public Competition (hereinafter referred to as: the Commission) is appointed by the Director of the Agency for the Protection of Personal Data. The Commission establishes a list of candidates who applied for the public competition and meet the formal requirements of the public competition, whose applications are timely and complete, and refers candidates from that list for testing and interviews.

Testing consists of verifying the knowledge, abilities, and skills of candidates (written part of the testing) and an interview conducted by the Commission with the candidates.

A candidate who did not attend the testing is no longer considered a candidate in the process.

The time and place of the testing will be announced at least five days before the date set for testing on the website of the Agency for the Protection of Personal Data (<https://azop.hr/>).

It is considered that a candidate who did not attend the testing is no longer considered a candidate in the process.

The job description and salary information for the position, the content and method of testing, and the legal sources for preparing candidates for testing will be published on the website of the Agency for the Protection of Personal Data (<https://azop.hr/>).

The legal sources for preparing candidates for testing will be published on the website of the Agency for the Protection of Personal Data (<https://azop.hr/>).

The selected candidate will be invited to submit, within a reasonable period and before the decision on admission to the civil service is made, a certificate from the competent court that no criminal proceedings are being conducted against them, a certificate of health capability for performing the tasks of the position, and original documents proving compliance with the formal requirements from the advertisement.

Failure to submit these documents will be considered a withdrawal from the admission to the civil service.

If no persons who meet the prescribed conditions apply for the public competition, or if the applicants do not pass the testing, the head of the body will suspend the procedure for this competition.

Candidates will be informed of the results of the public competition through a public announcement of the decision on the admission of the selected candidate to the civil service on the website of the Ministry of Justice, Administration, and Digital Transformation (<https://mpu.gov.hr/>) and the website of the Agency for the Protection of Personal Data (<https://azop.hr/>).

The delivery of the decision to all candidates is considered published upon the expiration of the eighth day from the date of publication on the website of the Ministry of Justice, Administration, and Digital Transformation (<https://mpu.gov.hr/>).
