In addition to the specified requirements, candidates must also meet the general conditions for recruitment into the civil service as prescribed by the provisions of Article 48 of the Civil Servants Act. A person cannot be admitted to the civil service if there are obstacles to their admission as per Article 49 of the Civil Servants Act.

Both genders may apply for the public competition.

A person is admitted to the civil service with a probation period of 3 months.

Candidates who do not have a passed state exam of the appropriate level may also apply for the public competition, with the obligation to take the state exam in accordance with the provisions of Article 56 of the Civil Servants Act.

Candidates who have passed the judicial exam are not required to take the state exam.

In the application for the public competition, personal data of the applicant must be provided (full name, address of residence, phone number or mobile number, and, if possible, email address) and the name of the job position for which they are applying.

The application must be signed by hand.

Along with the application, candidates are required to submit:

- a resume;
- proof of Croatian citizenship;
- proof of work experience in relevant positions, i.e., positions in the relevant professional qualification and field (electronic record or confirmation of data recorded in the database of the Croatian Pension Insurance Institute, employer's confirmation of work experience in relevant positions, or other proof indicating the positions held by the candidate);
- proof of completed level of education (copy of diploma);
- a copy of the certificate of passing the state exam of the appropriate level, or the judicial exam (for candidates who have passed the state/judicial exam).

If a person has changed their surname and submits documentation with the old surname, proof of the surname change must be provided.

Documents are submitted in unverified copies, and before the selection of the candidate, the original will be presented.

The deadline for submitting applications for the public competition is eight days from the date of publication in the "Official Gazette."

A complete application is considered to be one that contains all the data and attachments specified in the public competition and is signed by hand.

A person who has not submitted a timely and complete application or does not meet the formal requirements of the public competition will not be considered a candidate in the public competition process.

Applications with proof of meeting the requirements must be submitted within 8 days from the date of publication in the "Official Gazette," either in person or by mail to the address: Personal Data Protection Agency (application for the public competition), Selska cesta 136, 10000 Zagreb.

Persons who, according to special regulations, have the right to priority must refer to this right in their application, i.e., attach all prescribed documentation according to the special law.

A candidate who invokes the right to priority in employment in accordance with Article 101 of the Act on Croatian Veterans of the Homeland War and Members of Their Families ("Official Gazette", No. 121/17, 98/19, 84/21), and Article 47 of the Act on Civilian Victims of the Homeland War (Official Gazette, No. 84/21), must, along with the application for the advertisement, in addition to proof of meeting the required conditions, also submit evidence of meeting the priority conditions according to the list available on the website of the Ministry of Croatian Veterans via the following link:

<https://branitelji.gov.hr/zaposljavanje-u-drzavnoj-sluzbi/843>.

A candidate who invokes the right to priority in employment in accordance with Article 9 of the Act on Professional Rehabilitation and Employment of Persons with Disabilities ("Official Gazette", No. 157/13, 152/14, 39/18, and 32/20), must, along with the application for the public competition, in addition to proof of meeting the required conditions, also submit proof of established status as a person with a disability.

Invalidity

Candidates who invoke the right of preference in employment in accordance with Article 48.f of the Law on the Protection of Military and Civil War Invalids ("Narodne novine", No. 33/92, 57/92, 77/92, 27/93, 58/93, 2/94, 76/94, 108/95, 108/96, 82/01, 94/01, 103/03, 148/13, and 98/19), along with their application for the advertisement, are required to submit, in addition to proof of meeting the required conditions, a decision or certificate indicating the mentioned right.

Candidates who are members of a national minority have the right to invoke preference in employment based on Article 22 of the Constitutional Law on the Rights of National Minorities ("Narodne novine", No. 155/02, 47/10, 80/10, and 93/11 – Decision of the Constitutional Court of the Republic of Croatia) and are not required to prove their status as members of a national minority.

The Commission for the Implementation of the Public Competition (hereinafter: the Commission) is appointed by the Director of the Agency for the Protection of Personal Data. The Commission establishes a list of candidates who have applied for the public competition and meet the formal requirements of the public competition, whose applications are timely and complete, and refers candidates from that list for testing and interviews.

Testing consists of assessing the knowledge, abilities, and skills of candidates (written part of the testing) and an interview with the candidates conducted by the Commission. A candidate who does not attend the testing is no longer considered a candidate in the process.

The time and place of the testing will be announced at least five days before the date set for testing on the website of the Agency for the Protection of Personal Data (<https://azop.hr/>). A candidate who does not attend the testing is no longer considered a candidate in the process.

The job description and salary information for the position, the content and method of testing, and the legal sources for preparing candidates for testing will be published on the website of the Agency for the Protection of Personal Data (<https://azop.hr/>).

Legal sources for preparing candidates for testing will be published on the website of the Agency for the Protection of Personal Data (<https://azop.hr/>) simultaneously with the announcement of the public competition.

The selected candidate will be invited to submit, within a reasonable time and before the decision on their admission to the civil service is made, a certificate from the competent court that no criminal proceedings are being conducted against them, a certificate of health capacity to perform the duties of the position, and original documents proving compliance with the formal requirements from the advertisement. Failure to provide these documents will be considered a withdrawal from admission to the civil service.

If no persons who meet the prescribed conditions apply for the public competition, or if the applicants do not pass the testing, the head of the body will suspend the procedure for this competition.

Candidates will be informed of the results of the public competition through a public announcement of the decision on the admission of the selected candidate to the civil service on the website of the Ministry of Justice and Administration (<https://mpu.gov.hr/>) and the website of the Agency for the Protection of Personal Data (<https://azop.hr/>). The delivery of the decision to all candidates is considered published upon the expiration of the eighth day from the date of publication on the website of the Ministry of Justice and Administration (<https://mpu.gov.hr/>).
