RESOLUTION OF RIGHTS PROCEDURE

After carrying out the procedural actions provided for in Title VIII of Organic Law 3/2018, of December 5, on the Protection of Personal Data and Guarantee of Digital Rights (hereinafter LOPDGDD), the following FACTS have been established:

FIRST: A.A.A. (hereinafter, the claimant) exercised the right of Access against EXPERIAN BUREAU DE CRÉDITO, S.A. (hereinafter, the respondent) without their request having received the legally established response.

The claimant states that they request access to their data in the claimed credit information system. They provide a copy of the access request sent by email on December 19, 2022, to EXPERIAN, as well as a response indicating that their request has been received and that a response will be provided within a maximum period of one month, in accordance with data protection regulations.

SECOND: In accordance with Article 65.4 of Organic Law 3/2018, of December 5, on the Protection of Personal Data and Guarantee of Digital Rights (hereinafter LOPDGDD), this complaint was forwarded to the respondent, so that they could analyze it and inform this Agency within one month of the actions taken to comply with the requirements set forth in data protection regulations.

THIRD: The result of the transfer process indicated in the previous Fact did not allow for the understanding that the claimant's requests were satisfied. Consequently, on June 28, 2023, for the purposes provided for in Article 64.1 of the LOPDGDD, the Director of the Spanish Agency for the Protection of Data agreed to admit the complaint for processing.

The aforementioned agreement granted the respondent a hearing process, so that within ten working days they could present any arguments they deemed appropriate.

The respondent, during the period for arguments, has demonstrated that they have addressed the requested right by providing a copy of the letter sent to the claimant.

FOURTH: After examining the document submitted by the respondent, it is forwarded to the claimant, so that, within ten working days, they may formulate any arguments they consider appropriate. As of the date of this complaint request, no arguments have been submitted.

LEGAL GROUNDS

I

Competence

In accordance with the powers granted to each supervisory authority by Article 58.2 of Regulation (EU) 2016/679 (General Data Protection Regulation, hereinafter GDPR), and as established in Articles 47, 48.1, and 64.1 of Organic Law 3/2018, of December 5, on the Protection of Personal Data and Guarantee of Digital Rights (hereinafter LOPDGDD), the Director of the Spanish Agency for the Protection of Data is competent to initiate and resolve this procedure.

Furthermore, Article 63.2 of the LOPDGDD states: "The procedures processed by the Spanish Agency for the Protection of Data shall be governed by the provisions of Regulation (EU) 2016/679, this organic law, the regulatory provisions issued for its development, and, in so far as they do not contradict them, subsidiarily by the general rules on administrative procedures."

II

Preliminary Issues

In accordance with the provisions of Article 55 of the GDPR, the Spanish Agency for the Protection of Data is competent to perform the functions assigned to it in Article 57, including the enforcement of the Regulation and promoting awareness among data controllers and processors regarding their obligations, as well as addressing complaints filed by an interested party and investigating, as appropriate, the reasons for such complaints.

Correspondingly, Article 31 of the GDPR establishes the obligation of data controllers and processors to cooperate with the supervisory authority that requests it in the performance of its functions. In cases where they have appointed a data protection officer, Article 39 of the GDPR assigns this officer the function of cooperating with that authority.

In accordance with this regulation, following the procedure provided for in Article 65.4 of the LOPDGDD, prior to the admission of the complaint regarding the exercise of the rights regulated in Articles 15 to 22 of the GDPR, which gives rise to this procedure, it was forwarded to the respondent for analysis, to respond to this Agency within one month, and to demonstrate that they had provided the claimant with the appropriate response.

The result of this transfer did not allow for the understanding that the claimant's requests were satisfied. Consequently, on June 28, 2023, for the purposes provided for in Articles 64.1 and 65 of the LOPDGDD, the complaint was admitted for processing. This admission for processing determines the opening of the present procedure for failure to address a request for the exercise of the rights established in Articles 15 to 22 of the GDPR, regulated in Article 64.1 of the LOPDGDD, according to which:

“When the procedure refers exclusively to the lack of attention to a request for the exercise of the rights established in Articles 15 to 22 of Regulation (EU) 2016/679 of the European Parliament and of the Council, of April 27, 2016, it shall be initiated by an admission agreement, which shall be adopted in accordance with the provisions of Article 65 of this organic law.

In this case, the deadline for resolving the procedure shall be six months from the date on which the admission agreement was notified to the complainant. After this period, the interested party may consider their complaint to be accepted.”

Article 58.2 of the GDPR grants the Spanish Data Protection Agency a series of corrective powers for the purpose of remedying any infringement of the GDPR, including “ordering the data controller or processor to address the requests for the exercise of the rights of the data subject under this Regulation.”

III

Rights of individuals regarding personal data protection

The rights of individuals regarding personal data protection are regulated in Articles 15 to 22 of the GDPR and Articles 13 to 18 of the LOPDGDD. The rights of access, rectification, erasure, objection, the right to restriction of processing, and the right to data portability are contemplated.

The formal aspects related to the exercise of these rights are established in Articles 12 of the GDPR and 12 of the LOPDGDD.

Additionally, consideration is given to what is expressed in Recitals 59 and following of the GDPR.

In accordance with the provisions of these regulations, the data controller must establish formulas and mechanisms to facilitate the exercise of rights by the data subject, which shall be free of charge (without prejudice to the provisions of Articles 12.5 and 15.3 of the GDPR), and is obliged to respond to requests made no later than one month, unless it can demonstrate that it is unable to identify the data subject, and to express its reasons in case it does not intend to comply with such request. The burden of proof of compliance with the duty to respond to the request for the exercise of rights made by the affected party lies with the data controller.

The communication addressed to the data subject regarding their request must be expressed in a concise, transparent, intelligible, and easily accessible manner, using clear and simple language.

IV

Right of access

In accordance with the provisions of Article 15 of the GDPR and Article 13 of the LOPDGDD, "the data subject has the right to obtain from the data controller confirmation as to whether or not personal data concerning them is being processed and, if that is the case, the right of access to the personal data."

Regarding the right of access to personal data, in accordance with the provisions of Article 13 of the LOPDGDD, when the exercise of the right refers to a large amount of data, the data controller may request the affected party to specify the "data or processing activities to which the request refers." The right will be considered granted if the data controller provides remote access to the data, thus fulfilling the request (although the data subject may request the information referred to in the provisions of Article 15 of the GDPR).

The exercise of this right may be considered repetitive if it is exercised more than once within a period of six months, unless there is a legitimate reason for doing so. Furthermore, the request will be considered excessive when the affected party chooses a means other than the one offered that incurs a disproportionate cost, which must be borne by the affected party.

Like the other rights of the data subject, the right of access is a personal right. It allows the citizen to obtain information about the processing of their data, the possibility of obtaining a copy of the personal data concerning them and being processed, as well as information, in particular, about the purposes of the processing, the categories of personal data in question, the recipients or categories of recipients to whom the data may be communicated, the expected retention period or criteria for retention, the possibility of exercising other rights, the right to lodge a complaint with the supervisory authority, the available information about the source of the data (if it has not been obtained directly from the data subject), the existence of automated decisions, including profiling, and information about transfers of personal data to a third country or to an international organization. The possibility of obtaining a copy of the personal data being processed will not negatively affect the rights and freedoms of others; that is, the right of access will be granted in such a way that it does not affect third-party data.

V

Conclusion

In the case analyzed here, the claiming party exercised their right of Access, and after the period established in the aforementioned regulations, their request did not receive the legally required response, as the requested access was not provided.

The aforementioned regulations do not allow the request to be overlooked as if it had not been made, leaving it without the response that the data controllers are obliged to issue, even in cases where there are no data of the data subject in the entity's files or even in those cases where the requirements set forth are not met, in which case the recipient of the request is also obliged to require the rectification of the observed deficiencies or, if applicable, to deny the request with justification indicating the reasons why the right in question cannot be considered.

Therefore, the request made obliges the responsible party to provide an express response, in any case, using any means that justifies the receipt of the response.

In this case, however, it is noted that during the processing of the claim that gives rise to this procedure, formulated precisely due to the lack of an adequate response to the request for the exercise of rights, the party being claimed has provided documentation proving the communication sent to the interested party regarding the right or informing about the decision made regarding the request. This response, therefore, occurs after the established deadline has passed.

In this regard, it should be specified that the response that corresponds to be made cannot be expressed merely as part of an administrative procedure. Consequently, considering that the purpose of this procedure is to ensure that the guarantees and rights of the affected parties are duly restored, combining the information contained in the file with the regulations referred to in the preceding sections, it is appropriate to uphold the present claim on formal grounds due to the response being issued late, without requiring the responsible party to carry out additional actions in order to issue a new certification regarding the attention to the right.

In light of the cited provisions and other generally applicable regulations, the Director of the Spanish Agency for Data Protection RESOLVES:

FIRST: TO UPHOLD on formal grounds, the claim made by A.A.A., against EXPERIAN BUREAU DE CRÉDITO, S.A. However, the issuance of a new certification by the claimed party is not warranted, as the response was issued late, without requiring the performance of additional actions by the responsible party.

SECOND: TO NOTIFY this resolution to A.A.A. and to EXPERIAN BUREAU DE CRÉDITO, S.A.

In accordance with the provisions established in Article 50 of the LOPDGDD, this Resolution will be made public once it has been notified to the interested parties.

Against this resolution, which concludes the administrative procedure in accordance with Article 48.6 of the LOPDGDD, and in accordance with the provisions established in Article 123 of the LPACAP, the interested parties may optionally file a motion for reconsideration before the Director of the Spanish Agency for Data Protection within one month from the day following the notification of this resolution or directly file a contentious-administrative appeal before the Contentious-Administrative Chamber of the National Court, in accordance with the provisions of Article 25 and Section 5 of the fourth additional provision of Law 29/1998, of July 13, regulating the Contentious-Administrative Jurisdiction, within two months from the day following the notification of this act, as provided in Article 46.1 of the aforementioned Law.
