

RESOLUTION OF RIGHTS PROCEDURE

Once the procedural actions provided for in Title VIII of Organic Law 3/2018, of December 5, on the Protection of Personal Data and Guarantee of Digital Rights (hereinafter LOPDGDD) have been carried out, the following FACTS have been established:

FIRST: A.A.A. (hereinafter, the claimant) exercised the right of Access against WIZINK BANK, S.A. (hereinafter, the respondent).

The claimant states that in the customer area of WIZINK BANK, S.A., in addition to their postal address, there is a P.O. Box listed as a second address provided for the sending of correspondence. However, after exercising their right of access on May 25, 2023, they received a response dated June 22, 2023, which only included their postal address. They request that the right of access be sent to the P.O. Box.

SECOND: In accordance with Article 65.4 of Organic Law 3/2018, of December 5, on the Protection of Personal Data and Guarantee of Digital Rights (hereinafter LOPDGDD), this complaint was forwarded to the respondent for analysis and to inform this Agency within one month of the actions taken to comply with the requirements set forth in data protection regulations.

THIRD: The result of the transfer process indicated in the previous Fact did not allow for the understanding that the claimant's requests were satisfied. Consequently, on September 24, 2023, for the purposes provided for in Article 64.1 of the LOPDGDD, the Director of the Spanish Agency for the Protection of Data agreed to admit the complaint for processing.

The aforementioned agreement granted the respondent a hearing period, so that within ten working days, they could present the arguments they deemed appropriate.

The respondent, in summary, states that a P.O. Box does not prove that one has a residence in the country (Spain), and therefore, they address the right of access by sending the letter to the postal address listed as the primary address in the contract.

FOURTH: After examining the document submitted by the respondent, it is forwarded to the claimant, so that, within ten working days, they can formulate the arguments they consider appropriate.

The claimant provides numerous and diverse banking documents related to the contractual relationship between the claimant and the respondent.

They provide copies of the notifications sent by this Agency throughout the procedure, copies of the letters sent by the respondent, and proof of their P.O. Box.

LEGAL GROUNDS

I

Competence

In accordance with the powers granted to each supervisory authority by Article 58.2 of Regulation (EU) 2016/679 (General Data Protection Regulation, hereinafter GDPR), and as established in Articles 47, 48.1, and 64.1 of Organic Law 3/2018, of December 5, on the Protection of Personal Data and Guarantee of Digital Rights (hereinafter, LOPDGDD), the Director of the Spanish Agency for the Protection of Data is competent to initiate and resolve this procedure.

Furthermore, Article 63.2 of the LOPDGDD states: "The procedures processed by the Spanish Agency for the Protection of Data shall be governed by the provisions of Regulation (EU) 2016/679, by this organic law, by the regulatory provisions issued in its development, and, in so far as they do not contradict them, subsidiarily by the general rules on administrative procedures."

II

Preliminary Issues

In accordance with the provisions of Article 55 of the GDPR, the Spanish Agency for the Protection of Data is competent to perform the functions assigned to it in Article 57, including the enforcement of the Regulation and promoting awareness among data controllers and processors regarding their obligations, as well as addressing complaints filed by a data subject and investigating, as appropriate, the reasons for such complaints.

Correspondingly, Article 31 of the GDPR establishes the obligation of data controllers and processors to cooperate with the supervisory authority that requests it in the performance of its functions. In cases where they have appointed a data protection officer, Article 39 of the GDPR assigns this officer the function of cooperating with that authority.

In accordance with this regulation, following the procedure provided for in Article 65.4 of the LOPDGDD, prior to the admission of the complaint regarding the exercise of the rights regulated in Articles 15 to 22 of the GDPR, which gives rise to this procedure, it was forwarded to the respondent for analysis, to respond to this Agency within one month, and to demonstrate that they had provided the claimant with the appropriate response.

The result of this transfer did not allow for the understanding that the claimant's requests were satisfied. Consequently, on September 24, 2023, for the purposes provided for in Articles 64.1 and 65 of the LOPDGDD, the complaint was admitted for processing. This admission for processing determines the opening of the present procedure.

Procedure for the lack of attention to a request for the exercise of the rights established in Articles 15 to 22 of the GDPR, regulated in Article 64.1 of the LOPDGDD, according to which:

“When the procedure refers exclusively to the lack of attention to a request for the exercise of the rights established in Articles 15 to 22 of Regulation (EU) 2016/679 of the European Parliament and of the Council, of April 27, 2016, it shall be initiated by an admission agreement, which shall be adopted in accordance with the provisions of Article 65 of this organic law.

In this case, the deadline for resolving the procedure shall be six months from the date on which the admission agreement was notified to the complainant. After this period, the interested party may consider their complaint accepted.”

Article 58.2 of the GDPR grants the Spanish Data Protection Agency a series of corrective powers for the purpose of rectifying any infringement of the GDPR, including “ordering the controller or processor to address the requests for the exercise of the rights of the data subject under this Regulation.”

III

Rights of individuals regarding personal data protection

The rights of individuals regarding personal data protection are regulated in Articles 15 to 22 of the GDPR and Articles 13 to 18 of the LOPDGDD. The rights of access, rectification, erasure, objection, the right to restriction of processing, and the right to data portability are contemplated.

The formal aspects related to the exercise of these rights are established in Articles 12 of the GDPR and 12 of the LOPDGDD.

Additionally, the provisions expressed in Recitals 59 and following of the GDPR are taken into account. In accordance with the provisions of these regulations, the data controller must establish formulas and mechanisms to facilitate the exercise of rights by the interested party, which shall be free of charge (without prejudice to the provisions of Articles 12.5 and 15.3 of the GDPR), and is obliged to respond to the requests made no later than one month, unless it can demonstrate that it is unable to identify the interested party, and to express its reasons in case it does not intend to address such request. The burden of proof for compliance with the duty to respond to the request for the exercise of rights made by the affected party lies with the controller.

The communication addressed to the interested party regarding their request must be expressed in a concise, transparent, intelligible, and easily accessible manner, using clear and simple language.

IV

Right of access

C/ Jorge Juan, 6

www.aepd.es

In accordance with the provisions of Article 15 of the GDPR and Article 13 of the LOPDGDD, "the data subject has the right to obtain from the data controller confirmation as to whether or not personal data concerning them is being processed and, if so, the right of access to the personal data."

Regarding the right of access to personal data, according to the provisions of Article 13 of the LOPDGDD, when the exercise of the right refers to a large amount of data, the controller may request the affected party to specify the "data or processing activities to which the request refers." The right will be deemed granted if the controller provides remote access to the data, considering the request fulfilled (although the data subject may request the information referred to in the aspects provided in Article 15 of the GDPR).

The exercise of this right may be considered repetitive if exercised more than once within a six-month period, unless there is a legitimate reason for it. On the other hand, the request will be considered excessive when the affected party chooses a means other than the one offered that incurs a disproportionate cost, which must be borne by the affected party.

Like the other rights of the data subject, the right of access is a personal right. It allows the citizen to obtain information about the processing of their data, the possibility of obtaining a copy of the personal data concerning them that is being processed, as well as information, in particular, about the purposes of the processing, the categories of personal data concerned, the recipients or categories of recipients to whom the data may be communicated, the expected retention period or criteria for retention, the possibility of exercising other rights, the right to lodge a complaint with the supervisory authority, the available information about the source of the data (if not obtained directly from the data subject), the existence of automated decisions, including profiling, and information about transfers of personal data to a third country or to an international organization. The possibility of obtaining a copy of the personal data being processed will not negatively affect the rights and freedoms of others; that is, the right of access will be granted in such a way that it does not affect third-party data.

V

Conclusion

We will begin by stating that this claim will only gather evidence of whether the right has been attended to or not. The other issues raised, such as the fact that, of two addresses, one postal and the other a P.O. box, the respondent responds to the first one appearing in the contract between the parties despite the claimant choosing the second, is a matter that would fall outside the requested right. Regardless of whether the right has been received on one side or the other, what is analyzed in this claim is whether the requested right of access has been attended to, and we conclude that the right has been fully attended to, providing the claimant with a copy of the letter sent by the respondent dated June 22, 2023, therefore it is appropriate to dismiss the claim that originated this procedure.

In view of the cited provisions and others of general application, the Director of the Spanish Agency for Data Protection RESOLVES:

FIRST: TO DISMISS the claim made by A.A.A. against WIZINK BANK, S.A.

SECOND: TO NOTIFY this resolution to A.A.A. and to WIZINK BANK, S.A.

In accordance with the provisions of Article 50 of the LOPDGDD, this Resolution will be made public once it has been notified to the interested parties.

Against this resolution, which concludes the administrative procedure in accordance with Article 48.6 of the LOPDGDD, and in accordance with the provisions of Article 123 of the LPACAP, the interested parties may optionally file a motion for reconsideration before the Director of the Spanish Agency for Data Protection within one month from the day following the notification of this resolution or directly file a contentious-administrative appeal before the Contentious-Administrative Chamber of the National Court, in accordance with the provisions of Article 25 and Section 5 of the fourth additional provision of Law 29/1998, of July 13, regulating the Contentious-Administrative Jurisdiction, within two months from the day following the notification of this act, as provided in Article 46.1 of the aforementioned Law.
