RESOLUTION OF RIGHTS PROCEDURE

Following the procedural actions provided for in Title VIII of Organic Law 3/2018, of December 5, on the Protection of Personal Data and Guarantee of Digital Rights (hereinafter LOPDGDD), the following FACTS have been established:

FIRST: A.A.A. (hereinafter, the claimant) exercised the right of Access against CDC FRANQUICIADORA INMOBILIARIA, S.A. (hereinafter, the respondent) without receiving the legally established response to her request. The claimant states that she is a co-owner of a property and indicates that the entity GRUPO INMOBILIARIO GONTEGA, S.L. provided a deposit document containing her personal data to third parties, the buyers, who have accessed her data without her consent. She notes that on February 14, 2023, she sent a burofax with a request for access to her data to the entity responsible for the document, which was returned as the entity has ceased its activity. Therefore, on February 23, 2023, she sent another burofax, delivered on February 28, 2023, containing a request for access to her data to the parent entity of the franchise mentioned in the deposit contract, CDC FRANQUICIADORA INMOBILIARIA, S.A., without her right of access being addressed. She provides a copy of the deposit contract with her data, as well as the access requests sent to GRUPO INMOBILIARIO GONTEGA, S.L. and CDC FRANQUICIADORA INMOBILIARIA, S.A.

SECOND: In accordance with Article 65.4 of Organic Law 3/2018, of December 5, on the Protection of Personal Data and Guarantee of Digital Rights (hereinafter LOPDGDD), this complaint was forwarded to the respondent for analysis and to inform this Agency within one month of the actions taken to comply with the requirements set forth in data protection regulations.

THIRD: The result of the transfer procedure indicated in the previous Fact did not allow for the understanding that the claimant's requests were satisfied. Consequently, on August 8, 2023, for the purposes provided for in Article 64.1 of the LOPDGDD, the Director of the Spanish Agency for the Protection of Data agreed to admit the complaint for processing. The aforementioned agreement granted the respondent a hearing period of ten working days to present any arguments they deemed appropriate.

The respondent, in summary, states that it has no relationship with the entity referred to by the claimant.

Namely:

“...The claimant Ms. A.A.A., erroneously exercised her right of access against our entity (CDC FRANQUICIADORA INMOBILIARIA SA), as a result of the uncertainty and confusion caused by GRUPO INMOBILIARIO GONTEGA SL for its illegitimate use of the commercial brand RE/MAX CLASS. In addition to the above, the claimant directed her request erroneously to our entity, and also did not comply with the minimum formality to verify and/or confirm the identity of the holder of the right, that is, she did not provide a copy of the identity document...”

FOURTH: After examining the document submitted by the respondent, it is forwarded to the claimant for her to formulate any arguments she considers appropriate within ten working days. The claimant has not submitted any arguments.

LEGAL GROUNDS

I

Competence

In accordance with the powers granted to each supervisory authority by Article 58.2 of Regulation (EU)

2016/679 (General Data Protection Regulation, hereinafter GDPR), and as established in Articles 47, 48.1, and 64.1 of Organic Law 3/2018, of December 5, on the Protection of Personal Data and Guarantee of Digital Rights (hereinafter LOPDGDD), the Director of the Spanish Agency for the Protection of Data is competent to initiate and resolve this procedure.

Furthermore, Article 63.2 of the LOPDGDD states that: "The procedures processed by the Spanish Agency for the Protection of Data shall be governed by the provisions of Regulation (EU) 2016/679, this organic law, the regulatory provisions issued for its development, and, in so far as they do not contradict them, by the general rules on administrative procedures."

II

Preliminary Issues

In accordance with the provisions of Article 55 of the GDPR, the Spanish Agency for the Protection of Data is competent to perform the functions assigned to it in Article 57, including the enforcement of the Regulation and promoting awareness among data controllers and processors regarding their obligations, as well as addressing complaints submitted by a data subject and investigating, as appropriate, the reasons for such complaints.

Correspondingly, Article 31 of the GDPR establishes the obligation of data controllers and processors to cooperate with the supervisory authority that requests it in the performance of its functions. In cases where they have appointed a data protection officer, Article 39 of the GDPR assigns this officer the function of cooperating with that authority.

In accordance with this regulation, following the procedure established in Article 65.4 of the LOPDGDD, prior to the admission for processing of the complaint regarding the exercise of the rights regulated in Articles 15 to 22 of the GDPR, which gives rise to the present procedure, the complaint was forwarded to the respondent party for analysis, to respond to this Agency within one month, and to provide evidence of having given the due response to the complainant.

The result of this forwarding did not allow for the understanding that the claims of the complainant were satisfied. Consequently, on August 8, 2023, for the purposes provided in Articles 64.1 and 65 of the LOPDGDD, the submitted complaint was admitted for processing. This admission for processing determines the opening of the present procedure for lack of attention to a request for the exercise of the rights established in Articles 15 to 22 of the GDPR, regulated in Article 64.1 of the LOPDGDD, according to which:

"When the procedure refers exclusively to the lack of attention to a request for the exercise of the rights established in Articles 15 to 22 of Regulation (EU) 2016/679 of the European Parliament and of the Council, of April 27, 2016, it shall be initiated by an admission agreement, which shall be adopted in accordance with the provisions of Article 65 of this organic law.

In this case, the deadline for resolving the procedure shall be six months from the date on which the agreement of admission for processing was notified to the complainant. After this period, the interested party may consider their complaint accepted."

Article 58.2 of the GDPR grants the Spanish Data Protection Agency a series of corrective powers for the purpose of remedying any infringement of the GDPR, including "ordering the data controller or processor to address the requests for the exercise of the rights of the data subject under this Regulation."

III

Rights of individuals regarding personal data protection

The rights of individuals regarding personal data protection are regulated in Articles 15 to 22 of the GDPR and Articles 13 to 18 of the LOPDGDD. These include the rights of access, rectification, erasure, objection, the right to restriction of processing, and the right to data portability.

The formal aspects related to the exercise of these rights are established in Articles 12 of the GDPR and 12 of the LOPDGDD.

Additionally, consideration is given to what is expressed in Recitals 59 and following of the GDPR. In accordance with the provisions of these regulations, the data controller must establish formulas and mechanisms to facilitate the exercise of rights by the data subject, which shall be free of charge (without prejudice to the provisions of Articles 12.5 and 15.3 of the GDPR), and is obliged to respond to requests made no later than within a month.

unless it can demonstrate that it is unable to identify the interested party, and to express its reasons in case it does not intend to comply with such request. The burden of proof regarding the fulfillment of the duty to respond to the request for the exercise of rights made by the affected party lies with the responsible party. The communication addressed to the interested party in connection with their request must be expressed in a concise, transparent, intelligible, and easily accessible manner, using clear and simple language.

IV

Right of Access

In accordance with the provisions of Article 15 of the GDPR and Article 13 of the LOPDGDD, "the interested party has the right to obtain from the data controller confirmation as to whether or not personal data concerning them is being processed and, if so, the right of access to the personal data."

Regarding the right of access to personal data, according to the provisions of Article 13 of the LOPDGDD, when the exercise of the right refers to a large amount of data, the responsible party may request the affected party to specify the "data or processing activities to which the request refers." The right will be deemed granted if the responsible party provides remote access to the data, considering the request fulfilled (although the interested party may request the information referred to in the aspects provided in Article 15 of the GDPR).

The exercise of this right may be considered repetitive if it is exercised more than once within a period of six months, unless there is a legitimate reason for doing so. On the other hand, the request will be considered excessive when the affected party chooses a means other than the one offered that incurs a disproportionate cost, which must be borne by the affected party.

Like the other rights of the interested party, the right of access is a personal right. It allows the citizen to obtain information about the processing of their data, the possibility of obtaining a copy of the personal data concerning them that is being processed, as well as information, in particular, about the purposes of the processing, the categories of personal data concerned, the recipients or categories of recipients to whom the data may be communicated, the expected retention period or criteria for retention, the possibility of exercising other rights, the right to lodge a complaint with the supervisory authority, the information available about the origin of the data (if it has not been obtained directly from the data subject), the existence of automated decisions, including profiling, and information about transfers of personal data to a third country or to an international organization. The possibility of obtaining a copy of the personal data being processed will not negatively affect the rights and freedoms of others; that is, the right of access will be granted in such a way that it does not affect third-party data.

V

Conclusion

The entity being claimed has duly denied the access request by explaining and substantiating the reasons; however, during the processing of this procedure, the entity being claimed has not demonstrated that it has addressed the request made by the claimant, sending the required response to their request.

Given that a copy of the necessary communication that must be directed to the claimant informing them of the decision made regarding the exercise of rights is not attached, it is appropriate to uphold the claim that initiated this procedure.

In view of the cited provisions and other generally applicable regulations, the Director of the Spanish Agency for Data Protection RESOLVES:

FIRST: TO UPHOLD the claim made by A.A.A. considering that the provisions of Article 15 of the GDPR have been infringed, and to urge CDC FRANQUICIADORA INMOBILIARIA, S.A. with NIF A81008161, to send to the claimant, within ten working days following the notification of this resolution, a certification addressing the requested right or a duly substantiated denial indicating the reasons why the request cannot be met, in accordance with the provisions established in the body of this resolution. The actions taken as a result of this Resolution must be communicated to this Agency within the same period. Non-compliance with this resolution could result in the commission of an infringement of Article 83.6 of the GDPR, classified as very serious for the purposes of prescription in Article 72.1.m) of the LOPDGDD, which will be sanctioned in accordance with Article 58.2 of the GDPR.

SECOND: NOTIFY this resolution to A.A.A. and to CDC FRANQUICIADORA INMOBILIARIA, S.A. In accordance with the provisions of Article 50 of the LOPDGDD, this Resolution will be made public once it has been notified to the interested parties.

Against this resolution, which concludes the administrative procedure in accordance with Article 48.6 of the LOPDGDD, and in accordance with the provisions of Article 123 of the LPACAP, the interested parties may optionally file a motion for reconsideration before the Director of the Spanish Agency for Data Protection within one month from the day following the notification of this resolution or directly file a contentious-administrative appeal before the Contentious-Administrative Chamber of the National Court, in accordance with the provisions of Article 25 and Section 5 of the fourth additional provision of Law 29/1998, of July 13, regulating the Contentious-Administrative Jurisdiction, within two months from the day following the notification of this act, as provided in Article 46.1 of the aforementioned Law. 1381-090823
