

RESOLUTION OF RIGHTS PROCEDURE

Having reviewed the complaint registered on January 9, 2024, with this Agency and having carried out the procedural actions provided for in Title VIII of Organic Law 3/2018, of December 5, on the Protection of Personal Data and Guarantee of Digital Rights (hereinafter LOPDGDD), the following FACTS have been established:

FIRST: A.A.A. (hereinafter, the complainant) exercised the right of Access against TEATROS LUCHANA, S.L. (hereinafter, the respondent) without their request receiving the legally established response.

The complaint is made for the lack of attention by the respondent to the request made by the complainant exercising their right of access to their personal data.

The complainant states that, following the receipt of commercial electronic communications, they requested access on December 1, 2023, from the respondent without having received a response to date.

Along with the complaint, a copy of the request sent to the respondent through the channel provided for exercising rights in the privacy policy of their website (webmaster@teatros luchana.es) is attached.

SECOND: In accordance with Article 65.4 of Organic Law 3/2018, of December 5, on the Protection of Personal Data and Guarantee of Digital Rights (hereinafter LOPDGDD), the aforementioned complaint was forwarded to the respondent for analysis and to inform this Agency within one month of the actions taken to comply with the requirements established in data protection regulations.

THIRD: The result of the transfer procedure indicated in the previous Fact did not allow for the understanding that the complainant's claims were satisfied. Consequently, on April 9, 2024, for the purposes provided for in Article 64.1 of the LOPDGDD, the Director of the Spanish Agency for Data Protection agreed to admit the complaint for processing.

The aforementioned agreement granted the respondent a hearing period, so that within ten working days they could present the arguments they deemed appropriate. The respondent sent to this Agency a copy of the response given to the complainant, in which they addressed each and every issue raised.

FOURTH: After examining the document submitted by the respondent, it is forwarded to the complainant, so that, within ten working days, they may formulate the arguments they consider appropriate. The complainant sends to this Agency a document in which, in summary, they consider that they have not been informed about the origin of their personal data.

LEGAL GROUNDS

I

Competence

In accordance with the powers granted to each supervisory authority by Article 58.2 of Regulation (EU) 2016/679 (General Data Protection Regulation, hereinafter GDPR), and as established in Articles 47, 48.1, and 64.1 of Organic Law 3/2018, of December 5, on the Protection of Personal Data and Guarantee of Digital Rights (hereinafter, LOPDGDD), the Director of the Spanish Agency for Data Protection is competent to initiate and resolve this procedure.

Furthermore, Article 63.2 of the LOPDGDD states: "The procedures processed by the Spanish Agency for Data Protection shall be governed by the provisions of Regulation (EU) 2016/679, by this organic law, by the regulatory provisions issued in its development, and, as long as they do not contradict them, subsidiarily by the general rules on administrative procedures."

Preliminary Issues

In accordance with the provisions of Article 55 of the GDPR, the Spanish Agency for Data Protection is competent to perform the functions assigned to it in Article 57, including the enforcement of the Regulation and promoting awareness among controllers and processors regarding their obligations, as well as addressing complaints submitted by a data subject and investigating, as appropriate, the reasons for such complaints.

Correspondingly, Article 31 of the GDPR establishes the obligation of controllers and processors to cooperate with the supervisory authority that requests it in the performance of its functions. In cases where they have appointed a data protection officer, Article 39 of the GDPR assigns this officer the function of cooperating with that authority.

In accordance with this regulation, following the procedure provided for in Article 65.4 of the LOPDGDD, prior to the admission for processing of the complaint regarding the exercise of the rights regulated in Articles 15 to 22 of the GDPR, which gives rise to this procedure, it was forwarded to the respondent for analysis, to respond to this Agency within one month, and to demonstrate that they had provided the complainant with the appropriate response.

The result of said transfer did not allow for the understanding that the claims of the complaining party were satisfied. Consequently, on April 9, 2024, for the purposes provided in Articles 64.1 and 65 of the LOPDGDD, the complaint submitted was admitted for processing. This admission for processing determines the opening of the present procedure regarding the lack of attention to a request for the exercise of the rights established in Articles 15 to 22 of the GDPR, regulated in Article 64.1 of the LOPDGDD, according to which:

“When the procedure refers exclusively to the lack of attention to a request for the exercise of the rights established in Articles 15 to 22 of Regulation (EU) 2016/679 of the European Parliament and of the Council, of April 27, 2016, it will be initiated by an admission agreement, which will be adopted in accordance with the provisions of Article 65 of this organic law.

In this case, the deadline for resolving the procedure will be six months from the date on which the admission agreement was notified to the complainant. Once this period has elapsed, the interested party may consider their complaint accepted.”

Article 58.2 of the GDPR grants the Spanish Data Protection Agency a series of corrective powers for the purpose of rectifying any infringement of the GDPR, including “ordering the controller or processor to address the requests for the exercise of the rights of the data subject under this Regulation.”

III

Rights of Individuals in Relation to Personal Data Protection

The rights of individuals in relation to personal data protection are regulated in Articles 15 to 22 of the GDPR and Articles 13 to 18 of the LOPDGDD. The rights of access, rectification, erasure, objection, the right to restriction of processing, and the right to data portability are contemplated.

The formal aspects related to the exercise of these rights are established in Articles 12 of the GDPR and 12 of the LOPDGDD.

Additionally, consideration is given to what is expressed in Recitals 59 and following of the GDPR.

In accordance with the provisions of these regulations, the data controller must establish formulas and mechanisms to facilitate the exercise of rights by the data subject, which shall be free of charge (without prejudice to the provisions of Articles 12.5 and 15.3 of the GDPR), and is obliged to respond to requests made no later than one month, unless it can demonstrate that it is unable to identify the data subject, and to express its reasons in case it does not intend to address such request. The burden of proof regarding compliance with the obligation to respond to the request for the exercise of rights made by the affected party lies with the controller.

The communication addressed to the data subject regarding their request must be expressed in a concise, transparent, intelligible, and easily accessible manner, using clear and simple language.

IV

Right of Access

In accordance with the provisions of Article 15 of the GDPR and Article 13 of the LOPDGDD, "the data subject has the right to obtain from the data controller confirmation as to whether or not personal data concerning them is being processed and, if so, the right of access to the personal data."

Regarding the right of access to personal data, according to the provisions of Article 13 of the LOPDGDD, when the exercise of the right refers to a large amount of data, the data controller may request the data subject to specify the "data or processing activities to which the request refers." The right will be deemed granted if the controller provides remote access to the data, considering the request fulfilled (although the data subject may request the information referred to in the aspects provided for in Article 15 of the GDPR).

The exercise of this right may be considered repetitive if it is exercised more than once within a period of six months, unless there is a legitimate reason for it. On the other hand, the request will be considered excessive when the data subject chooses a means other than that offered which incurs a disproportionate cost, which must be borne by the data subject.

Like the other rights of the data subject, the right of access is a personal right. It allows the citizen to obtain information about the processing of their data, the possibility of obtaining a copy of the personal data concerning them that is being processed, as well as information, in particular, about the purposes of the processing, the categories of personal data concerned, the recipients or categories of recipients to whom the data may be communicated, the expected retention period or criteria for retention, the possibility of exercising other rights, the right to lodge a complaint with the supervisory authority, the information available about the origin of the data (if it has not been obtained directly from the data subject), the existence of automated decisions, including profiling, and information about transfers of personal data to a third country or to an international organization. The possibility of obtaining a copy of the personal data being processed will not adversely affect the rights and freedoms of others.

V

Conclusion

We will begin by stating that this complaint will only consider whether the requested right, the right of access, has been addressed or not. The other issues raised by the complainant regarding the use of data without their permission or for purposes other than those stated, or even a transfer of personal data, will not be taken into account in this resolution, but this Agency reserves the right to open an investigation if deemed appropriate, in which case the parties will be notified in advance.

In the case analyzed here, the complainant exercised their right of access and, after the period established in the aforementioned regulations, their request did not receive the legally required response, as the requested access was not provided.

The aforementioned regulations do not allow the request to be disregarded as if it had not been made, leaving it without the response that the controllers are obliged to issue, even in the event that there are no data of the data subject in the entity's files or even in those cases where the requirements set forth are not met, in which case the recipient of such a request is also obliged to require the rectification of the observed deficiencies or, if applicable, to deny the request with justification indicating the reasons why the right in question cannot be considered.

Therefore, the request made obliges the controller to provide an express response, in any case, using any means that justifies the receipt of the response.

In this case, however, it is noted that during the processing of the complaint that gives rise to this procedure, formulated precisely due to the lack of an adequate response to the request for the exercise of rights, the respondent has provided documentation proving the communication sent to the data subject addressing the right or informing about the decision made regarding the request. This response, therefore, occurs after the established deadline has passed.

In this regard, it should be clarified that the response that corresponds to be made cannot be expressed merely as part of an administrative procedure. Consequently, considering that the purpose of this procedure is to ensure that the guarantees and rights of the affected parties are duly restored, combining the information in the file with the regulations referred to in the preceding sections, it is appropriate to uphold this complaint on formal grounds due to the response being issued late, without requiring the performance of additional actions by the data controller in order to issue a new certification regarding the attention to the right.

In view of the cited provisions and others of general application, the Director of the Spanish Data Protection Agency RESOLVES:

FIRST: TO UPHOLD on formal grounds, the complaint filed by A.A.A. against TEATROS LUCHANA, S.L. However, it is not appropriate to issue a new certification by the respondent, as the response was issued late, without requiring the performance of additional actions by the controller.

SECOND: TO NOTIFY this resolution to A.A.A. and to TEATROS LUCHANA, S.L.
