RESOLUTION OF RECOURSE FOR RECONSIDERATION

Examined the recourse for reconsideration filed by A.A.A. (hereinafter, the appellant), against the resolution issued by the Director of the Spanish Agency for Data Protection, dated November 22, 2024, and based on the following:

FACTS

FIRST: On November 22, 2024, a resolution was issued by the Director of the Spanish Agency for Data Protection in the procedure EXP202308299 against B.B.B.

SECOND: By virtue of the provisions of Article 77.2 of Regulation (EU) 2016/679, of April 27, 2016, General Data Protection Regulation, the now appellant was informed, in their capacity as complainant, of the conclusion of the procedure initiated as a result of their complaint.

THIRD: On February 11, 2025, the appellant filed a recourse for reconsideration against the resolution issued in file EXP202308299, in which they express disagreement with the contested resolution.

LEGAL GROUNDS

I

Competence

The Presidency of the Spanish Agency for Data Protection is competent to resolve this recourse in accordance with the provisions of Article 123 of Law 39/2015, of October 1, on the Common Administrative Procedure of Public Administrations (hereinafter, LPACAP) and Article 48.1 of Organic Law 3/2018, of December 5, on Personal Data Protection and Guarantee of Digital Rights (hereinafter, LOPDGDD).

II

Grounds for inadmissibility

In accordance with the provisions of Article 62.5 of the LPACAP, the appellant lacks the status of interested party in the ex officio procedure that may be initiated as a result of the information presented, as it stipulates that the filing of a complaint does not, by itself, confer the status of interested party in the procedure. Furthermore, by virtue of Article 116 b) of the LPACAP, the lack of standing of the appellant is grounds for inadmissibility of the recourse.

In this regard, the Supreme Court, in its Judgment of November 26, 2002, stated that “the complainant is neither the holder of a subjective right to obtain a sanction against the accused, nor can a legitimate interest be recognized for their complaint to prosper, rights and interests that are the prerequisites that configure standing, according to Article 24.1 of the Constitution and Article 31 of Law 30/92, without arguments related to correcting irregularities or preventing them in the future, or the moral satisfaction that the sanction would entail, or the investigation of the facts, being valid as supporters of that interest for the complainant (...)”

Moreover, regarding the general principles of sanctioning administrative law, according to the STS of October 6, 2009 (Rec. 4.712/2005), “The crucial argument in this matter is that the complainant, even when considering themselves a ‘victim’ of the reported infringement, does not have a subjective right or a legitimate interest for the accused to be sanctioned. The punitive power belongs solely to the Administration that has the corresponding sanctioning authority – in this case, the Spanish Agency for Data Protection – and consequently, only the Administration has a legally protected interest in sanctioning the infringer.”

In view of the cited provisions and others of general application, the Presidency of the Spanish Agency for Data Protection RESOLVES:

FIRST: TO DISMISS the recourse for reconsideration filed by A.A.A. against the resolution of this Spanish Agency for Data Protection dated November 22, 2024, in procedure EXP202308299.

SECOND: TO NOTIFY this resolution to A.A.A.

In accordance with the provisions of Article 50 of the LOPDGDD, this Resolution will be made public once it has been notified to the interested parties.

Against this resolution, which concludes the administrative process, a contentious-administrative appeal may be filed within two months from the day following the notification of this act, as provided in

Article 46.1 of Law 29/1998, of July 13, regulating the Contentious-Administrative Jurisdiction, before the Contentious-Administrative Chamber of the National Court, in accordance with the provisions of Article 25 and paragraph 5 of the fourth additional provision of the aforementioned Law.
