

RESOLUTION OF RIGHTS PROCEDURE

After carrying out the procedural actions provided for in Title VIII of Organic Law 3/2018, of December 5, on the Protection of Personal Data and the Guarantee of Digital Rights (hereinafter LOPDGDD), the following FACTS have been established:

FIRST: Ms. A.A.A. (hereinafter, the claimant) exercised the right to erasure against the respondent, and her request, as stated by the claimant, did not receive the legally established response. The claimant provides various documentation related to the complaint filed with this Agency and regarding the exercise of the right exercised.

SECOND: Once the procedure established in Article 65.4 of the LOPDGDD was fulfilled, the complaint was admitted for processing, and LUXOTTICA GROUP, S.P.A. (hereinafter, the respondent) was granted a hearing period, to submit any allegations it deemed appropriate within ten working days. The respondent has not demonstrated, during the formalized procedures, that it has responded to the request for the exercise of rights presented by the claimant.

LEGAL GROUNDS

I

Competence

In accordance with the powers granted to each supervisory authority by Article 58.2 of Regulation (EU) 2016/679 (General Data Protection Regulation, hereinafter GDPR), and as established in Articles 47, 48.1, and 64.1 of the LOPDGDD, the Director of the Spanish Data Protection Agency is competent to initiate and resolve this procedure.

Furthermore, Article 63.2 of the LOPDGDD states: "The procedures processed by the Spanish Data Protection Agency shall be governed by the provisions of Regulation (EU) 2016/679, by this organic law, by the regulatory provisions issued in its development, and, to the extent that they do not contradict them, subsidiarily by the general rules on administrative procedures."

Preliminary Issues

In accordance with the provisions of Article 55 of the GDPR, the Spanish Data Protection Agency is competent to perform the functions assigned to it in Article 57, including the enforcement of the Regulation and promoting awareness among controllers and processors regarding their obligations, as well as addressing complaints filed by a data subject and investigating, as appropriate, the reasons for such complaints.

Correspondingly, Article 31 of the GDPR establishes the obligation of controllers and processors to cooperate with the supervisory authority that requests it in the performance of its functions. In cases where they have appointed a data protection officer, Article 39 of the GDPR assigns this officer the function of cooperating with that authority.

In accordance with this regulation, following the procedure established in Article 65.4 of the LOPDGDD, prior to the admission of the complaint regarding the exercise of the rights regulated in Articles 15 to 22 of the GDPR, which gives rise to this procedure, the complaint was forwarded to the respondent for analysis, to respond to this Agency within one month, and to demonstrate that it had provided the claimant with the appropriate response.

The result of this forwarding did not allow for the understanding that the claimant's requests were satisfied. Consequently, on August 11, 2023, for the purposes provided for in Articles 64.1 and 65 of the LOPDGDD, the complaint was admitted for processing. This admission for processing determines the opening of the present procedure for lack of attention to a request for the exercise of the rights established in Articles 15 to 22 of the GDPR, regulated in Article 64.1 of the LOPDGDD, according to which:

“When the procedure refers exclusively to the lack of attention to a request for the exercise of the rights established in Articles 15 to 22 of Regulation (EU) 2016/679 of the European Parliament and of the Council, of April 27, 2016, it shall be initiated by an admission agreement, which shall be adopted in accordance with the provisions of Article 65 of this organic law.

In this case, the deadline for resolving the procedure shall be six months from the date on which the claimant was notified of the admission agreement. After this period, the interested party may consider their complaint to be upheld.”

Article 58.2 of the GDPR grants the Spanish Data Protection Agency a series of corrective powers for the purpose of rectifying any infringement of the GDPR, including "ordering the controller or processor to address the requests for the exercise of the rights of the data subject under this Regulation."

Rights of Individuals Regarding Personal Data Protection

The rights of individuals regarding personal data protection are regulated in Articles 15 to 22 of the GDPR and Articles 13 to 18 of the LOPDGDD. The rights include access, rectification, erasure, objection, the right to restriction of processing, and the right to data portability.

The formal aspects related to the exercise of these rights are established in Articles 12 of the GDPR and 12 of the LOPDGDD.

Additionally, the provisions expressed in Recitals 59 and following of the GDPR are taken into account. In accordance with the provisions of these regulations, the data controller must establish formulas and mechanisms to facilitate the exercise of rights by the data subject, which shall be free of charge (without prejudice to the provisions of Articles 12.5 and 15.3 of the GDPR), and is obliged to respond to requests made no later than one month, unless it can demonstrate that it is unable to identify the data subject, and must express its reasons if it does not intend to comply with such request. The burden of proof for compliance with the obligation to respond to the request for the exercise of rights made by the affected party lies with the data controller.

The communication addressed to the data subject regarding their request must be expressed in a concise, transparent, intelligible, and easily accessible manner, using clear and simple language.

Right to Erasure

Article 17 of the GDPR, which regulates the right to erasure of personal data, establishes the following:

"1. The data subject shall have the right to obtain from the data controller the erasure of personal data concerning them without undue delay, and the data controller shall be obliged to erase personal data without undue delay when one of the following circumstances applies:

- a) the personal data are no longer necessary in relation to the purposes for which they were collected or otherwise processed;
- b) the data subject withdraws consent on which the processing is based in accordance with Article 6(1)(a) or Article 9(2)(a), and where there is no other legal ground for the processing;
- c) the data subject objects to the processing pursuant to Article 21(1), and there are no overriding legitimate grounds for the processing, or the data subject objects to the processing pursuant to Article 21(2);
- d) the personal data have been unlawfully processed;
- e) the personal data must be erased for compliance with a legal obligation in Union or Member State law to which the data controller is subject;
- f) the personal data have been collected in relation to the offer of information society services referred to in Article 8(1).

2. When the data controller has made the personal data public and is obliged, under paragraph 1, to erase such data, the data controller, taking into account available technology and the cost of implementation, shall take reasonable steps, including technical measures, to inform controllers which are processing the personal data of the data subject's request for erasure of any links to, or copies or replications of, those personal data.

3. Paragraphs 1 and 2 shall not apply to the extent that processing is necessary:

- a) for exercising the right of freedom of expression and information;
- b) for compliance with a legal obligation which requires processing by Union or Member State law to which the data controller is subject, or for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest or in the exercise of official authority vested in the controller;
- c) for reasons of public interest in the area of public health in accordance with Article 9(2)(h) and (i), and paragraph 3;
- d) for archiving purposes in the public interest, scientific or historical research purposes or statistical purposes in accordance with Article 89(1), in so far as the right referred to in paragraph 1 is likely to render impossible or seriously impair the achievement of the objectives of that processing, or
- e) for the establishment, exercise or defense of legal claims."

V

Conclusion

In the case analyzed here, the complainant exercised their right to erasure regulated in Article 17 of the GDPR.

After the period established in accordance with the aforementioned regulations, their request did not receive the legally required response. The entity being complained against has not addressed the request of the complainant nor the requirements that have been sent to it by this Agency.

The aforementioned regulations do not allow the request to be overlooked as if it had not been made, leaving it without the response that the controllers are obliged to issue, even in the event that there are no data of the data subject in the entity's files or even in those cases where the requirements are not met, in which case the recipient of such request is also obliged to require the rectification of the observed deficiencies or, where appropriate, to deny the request with reasons indicating the causes for which the right in question should not be considered.

Therefore, the request made obliges the controller to provide an express response, in any case, using any means that justifies the receipt of the response.
