RESOLUTION OF RIGHTS PROCEDURE

After carrying out the procedural actions provided for in Title VIII of Organic Law 3/2018, of December 5, on the Protection of Personal Data and Guarantee of Digital Rights (hereinafter LOPDGDD), the following FACTS have been established:

FIRST: A.A.A. (hereinafter, the claimant) exercised the right of Access against AYUNTAMIENTO DE OURENSE (hereinafter, the respondent) without their request receiving the legally established response.

On January 5, 2023, the claimant exercised the right of access before the respondent. According to the claimant, their request has not been addressed.

Along with the complaint, they provide the registered application to exercise the right.

SECOND: In accordance with Article 65.4 of Organic Law 3/2018, of December 5, on the Protection of Personal Data and Guarantee of Digital Rights (hereinafter LOPDGDD), the complaint was forwarded to the respondent for analysis and to inform this Agency within one month of the actions taken to comply with the requirements set forth in data protection regulations.

The respondent responded to the transfer and request for information on July 6, 2023. They attached the response sent to the claimant dated June 28, 2023, in which they state: "...due to the complexity of the right of access exercised (...) and due to a lack of resources, the staff of the Concello has been unable to respond to your request in a timely manner. However, we would like to inform you that the entity is currently analyzing it to determine whether it is feasible to provide you with a copy of the requested documentation, and that, as soon as possible, we will send you the duly reasoned conclusion. We suggest that for any questions, inquiries, or complaints you may have from the perspective of personal data protection, you contact this entity directly via the email address of the Data Protection Officer dpd@audidat.com, thus avoiding excessive "administrativization," which is contrary to the conciliatory spirit that should exist between the parties..."

THIRD: The result of the transfer procedure indicated in the previous Fact did not allow for the understanding that the claims of the claimant were satisfied. Consequently, on July 11, 2023, for the purposes provided for in Article 64.1 of the LOPDGDD, the Director of the Spanish Agency for the Protection of Data agreed to admit the complaint for processing.

LEGAL GROUNDS

I

Competence

In accordance with the powers granted to each supervisory authority by Article 58.2 of Regulation (EU) 2016/679 (General Data Protection Regulation, hereinafter GDPR), and as established in Articles 47, 48.1, and 64.1 of Organic Law 3/2018, of December 5, on the Protection of Personal Data and Guarantee of Digital Rights (hereinafter LOPDGDD), the Director of the Spanish Agency for the Protection of Data is competent to initiate and resolve this procedure.

Furthermore, Article 63.2 of the LOPDGDD states: "The procedures processed by the Spanish Agency for the Protection of Data shall be governed by the provisions of Regulation (EU) 2016/679, this organic law, the regulatory provisions issued in its development, and, to the extent that they do not contradict them, subsidiarily by the general rules on administrative procedures."

II

Preliminary Issues

In accordance with the provisions of Article 55 of the GDPR, the Spanish Agency for the Protection of Data is competent to perform the functions assigned to it in Article 57, including the enforcement of the Regulation and promoting awareness among data controllers and processors regarding their obligations, as well as addressing complaints submitted by a data subject and investigating, as appropriate, the reasons for such complaints.

Correspondingly, Article 31 of the GDPR establishes the obligation of data controllers and processors to cooperate with the supervisory authority that requests it in the performance of its functions. In cases where they have designated a data protection officer, Article 39 of the GDPR assigns this officer the function of cooperating with that authority.

In accordance with this regulation, following the procedure provided for in Article 65.4 of the LOPDGDD, prior to the admission of the complaint regarding the exercise of the rights regulated in Articles 15 to 22 of the GDPR, which gives rise to the present procedure, it was forwarded to the respondent for analysis, to respond to this Agency within one month, and to demonstrate that they had provided the claimant with the appropriate response.

The result of that transfer did not allow for the understanding that the claims of the claimant were satisfied. Consequently, on July 11, 2023, for the purposes...

As provided in Articles 64.1 and 65 of the LOPDGDD, the complaint submitted was admitted for processing. This admission for processing determines the opening of the present procedure regarding the lack of attention to a request for the exercise of the rights established in Articles 15 to 22 of the GDPR, regulated by Article 64.1 of the LOPDGDD, according to which:

"When the procedure refers exclusively to the lack of attention to a request for the exercise of the rights established in Articles 15 to 22 of Regulation (EU) 2016/679 of the European Parliament and of the Council, of April 27, 2016, it will be initiated by an admission agreement, which will be adopted in accordance with the provisions of Article 65 of this organic law.

In this case, the deadline for resolving the procedure will be six months from the date on which the agreement of admission for processing was notified to the complainant. Once this period has elapsed, the interested party may consider their complaint accepted."

Article 58.2 of the GDPR grants the Spanish Data Protection Agency a series of corrective powers for the purpose of rectifying any infringement of the GDPR, including "ordering the data controller or processor to attend to the requests for the exercise of the rights of the data subject under this Regulation."

III

Rights of Individuals Regarding Personal Data Protection

The rights of individuals regarding personal data protection are regulated in Articles 15 to 22 of the GDPR and Articles 13 to 18 of the LOPDGDD. The rights of access, rectification, erasure, objection, the right to restriction of processing, and the right to data portability are contemplated.

The formal aspects related to the exercise of these rights are established in Articles 12 of the GDPR and 12 of the LOPDGDD.

Additionally, the provisions expressed in Recitals 59 and following of the GDPR are taken into account. In accordance with the provisions of these regulations, the data controller must establish formulas and mechanisms to facilitate the exercise of rights by the data subject, which will be free of charge (without prejudice to the provisions of Articles 12.5 and 15.3 of the GDPR), and is obliged to respond to requests made no later than one month, unless it can demonstrate that it is unable to identify the data subject, and must express its reasons in case it does not intend to attend to such request. The burden of proof regarding compliance with the duty to respond to the request for the exercise of rights made by the affected party falls on the data controller.

The communication addressed to the data subject regarding their request must be expressed in a concise, transparent, intelligible, and easily accessible manner, using clear and simple language.

IV

Right of Access

In accordance with the provisions of Article 15 of the GDPR and Article 13 of the LOPDGDD, “the data subject has the right to obtain from the data controller confirmation as to whether or not personal data concerning them is being processed and, if so, the right of access to the personal data.”

Regarding the right of access to personal data, according to the provisions of Article 13 of the LOPDGDD, when the exercise of the right refers to a large amount of data, the data controller may request the affected party to specify the “data or processing activities to which the request refers.” The right will be deemed granted if the data controller provides remote access to the data, considering the request attended (although the data subject may request information regarding the aspects provided in Article 15 of the GDPR).

The exercise of this right may be considered repetitive if it is exercised more than once within a six-month period, unless there is a legitimate reason for doing so.

On the other hand, the request will be considered excessive when the affected party chooses a means other than the one offered that incurs a disproportionate cost, which must be borne by the affected party.

Like the other rights of the data subject, the right of access is a personal right. It allows the citizen to obtain information about the processing of their data, the possibility of obtaining a copy of the personal data concerning them and being processed, as well as information, in particular, about the purposes of the processing, the categories of personal data concerned, the recipients or categories of recipients to whom the data may be communicated, the expected retention period or criteria for retention, the possibility of exercising other rights, the right to lodge a complaint with the supervisory authority, the available information about the source of the data (if the data has not been obtained directly from the data subject), the existence of automated decision-making, including profiling, and information about transfers of personal data to a third country or to an international organization. The possibility of obtaining a copy of the personal data being processed shall not adversely affect the rights and freedoms of others, meaning that the right of access will be granted in such a way that it does not affect third-party data.

V

Conclusion

As a result of the transfer of the complaint from the AEPD to the entity being complained against, this entity responded to this Agency, but does not prove having attended to the request made by the complainant, sending the required response to their request. Although in that writing it stated that they were studying the request, they have not attended to the right nor responded after the complaint was admitted for processing due to lack of response.
